THE GRAMMAR LESSON.

Conjunctions join the words together,
As men and women, wind or weather.
The Prepositions stand before,
A Noun, as in, or through a door.

5.

The Interjection shows surprise,
As, Oh! how pretty! Ah! how wise!
The whole are called Nine Parts of Speech,
Which Reading, Writing, Speaking, teach.

A word, a look has crushed to earth,
Full many a budding flower,
Which, if a smile had owned its birth,
Had blest life's darkest hour.

4.

Then deem it not a little thing
A pleasant word to speak;
The face you wear, the thoughts you bring,
A heart may heal or break.

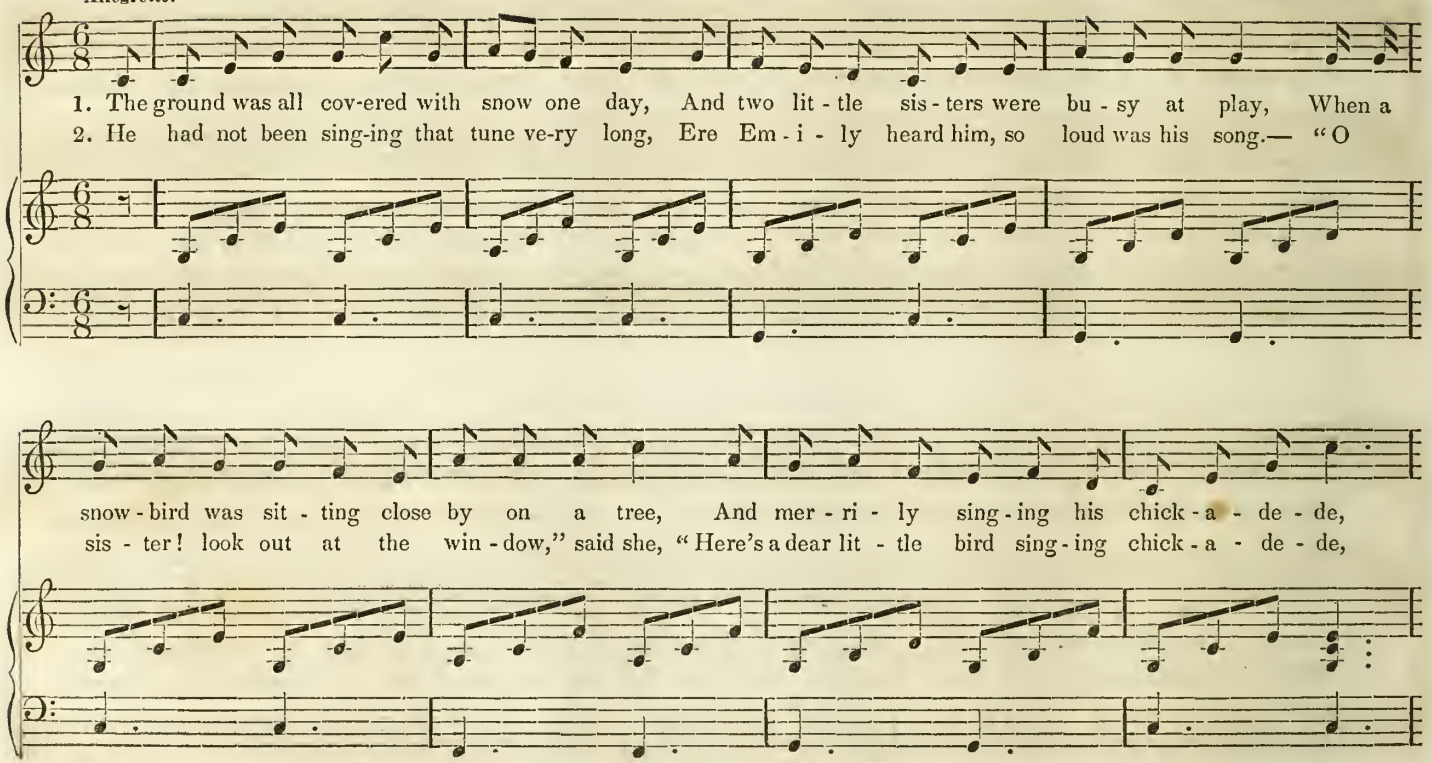
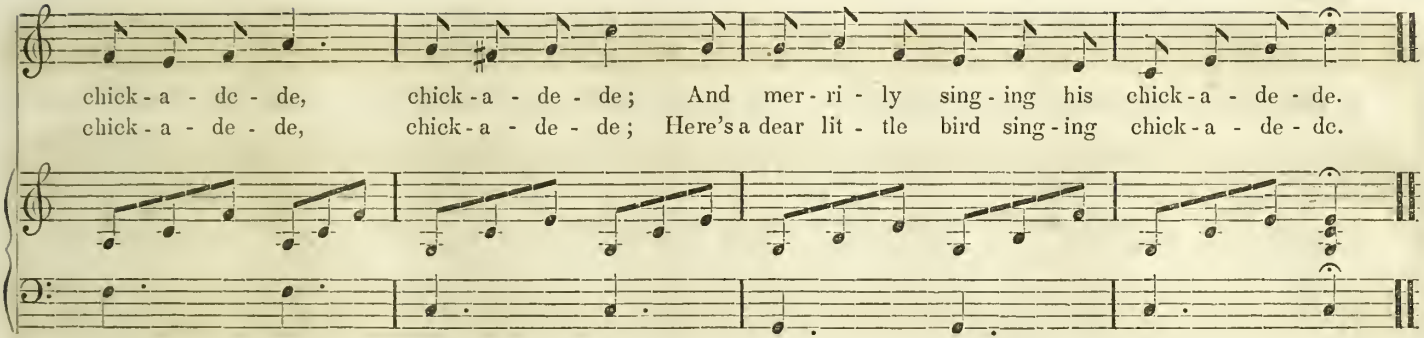
Arranged from VELASKOW.

Allegretto.



* By permission of GEORGE P. REED, ESQ.



3. "Poor fellow! he walks in the snow and the sleet,
And has neither stockings nor shoes on his feet;
I pity him so! how cold he must be!
And yet he keeps singing his chick-a-de-de, &c.

4. "If I were a bare-footed snow-bird, I know
I would not stay out in the cold and the snow;
I wonder what makes him so full of his glee,
He's all the time singing that chick-a-de-de, &c.

5. "O mother! do get him some stockings and shoes,
A frock, with a cloak, and a hat, if he choose;
I wish he'd come into the parlor, and see
How warm we would make him, poor chick-a-de-de," &c.

6. The bird had flown down for some pieces of bread,
And heard every word little Emily said;
"What a figure I'd make in that dress," thought he,
And he laughed, and he warbled his chick-a-de-de, &c.

7. "I am grateful," he said, "for the wish you express,
But I've no occasion for such a fine dress;
I had rather remain with my limbs all free,
Than to hobble about, singing chick-a-de-de, &c.

8. "There is One, my dear child, tho' I cannot tell who,
Has clothed me already, and warm enough too.
Good morning! O, who are so happy as we!"
And away he went, singing his chick-a-de-de, &c.

ON LAWN AND YON MEADOW.

Words and Music by H. A. POND.

Why over yon lea do they merrily bound,
And do gambol in innocent play?
Their hearts know no care, and joy reigns around,
As bright as the merry spring day.
And if you ask, &c.

'Tis hearts reared like these, our country doth fill,
Who with pride her freedom proclaim;
And, while aught of life lives, we love liberty still,
And from youth to old age we're the same.
From clime to clime it will ever be,
Long life to America, land of the free.

SELECTION 1.

1. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the | way of | sinners ;
   Nor sitteth in the | se-at | of the | scornful.
2. But his delight is in the | law · of the | Lord.
   And in his law doth he | medi-tate | day and | night.
3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the | rivers · of | water,
   That bringeth forth his | fru-it | in his | season.
4. His leaf also | shall not | wither.
   And whatso- | ever he | doeth shall | prosper.

5. The ungodly | are not | so,
   But are like the chaff which the | wind dri- | veth a- | way.
6. Therefore the ungodly shall not | stand · in the | judgment,
   Nor sinners in the congre- | gation | of the | righteous.
7. For the Lord knoweth the | way · of the | righteous.
   But the way of the un- | godly | sha-ll | perish.

[Ps. I.]

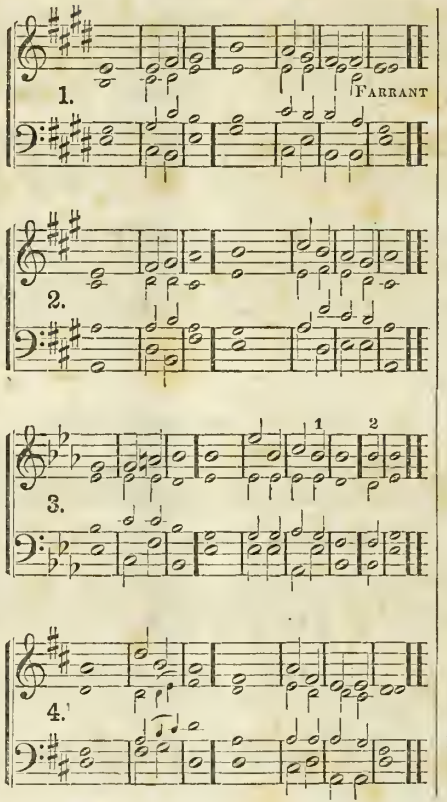
SELECTION 2.

1. Give ear to my | words, O | Lord ;
   Con- | sider - my | med-i- | tation.
2. Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, | and my | God;
   For unto | thee will | I— | pray.
3. My voice shalt thou hear in the | morning, O | Lord ;
   In the morning will I direct my prayer unto | thee, and | will look | up.

4. For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in | wicked- | ness.
   Neither shall | evil | dwell with | thee.
5. The foolish shall not stand | in thy | sight.
   Thou hatest all | workers | of in- | iquity.
6. Thou shalt destroy them | that speak | falsehood ;
   The Lord will abhor the bloody | and de- | ceitful | man.

7. But as for me, I will come unto thy house in the multitude | of thy | mercy ;
   And in thy fear will I worship | toward thy | holy | temple.
8. Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because | of mine | enemies ;
   Make thy way | straight be- | fore my | face.
9. Let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice, let them ever shout for joy, because thou de- | fendest | them ;
   Let them also that love thy name be | joy- | ful in | thee.
10. For thou, Lord, wilt | bless the | righteous ;
    With favor wilt thou compass | him as | with a | shield.

[Ps. v.].



SELECTION 3.

1. The heavens declare the | glory of | God ;
   And the firmament | sheweth his | handy | work.
2. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night | sheweth | knowledge.
   There is no speech nor language, where their | voice is | not— | heard.
3. Their line is gone out through | all the | earth,
   And their words to the | e-nd | of the | world.
4. In them hath he set a tabernacle | for the | sun,
   Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong | man to | run a | race.
5. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the | ends of | it :
   And there is nothing | hid · from the | heat there- | of.

6. The law of the Lord is perfect, con- | verting the | soul :
   The testimony of the Lord is sure, | making | wise the | simple.
7. The statutes of the Lord are right, re- | joicing the | heart :
   The commandment of the Lord is pure, en- | light- | ening the | eyes.
8. The fear of the Lord is clean, en- | during for- | ever :
   The judgments of the Lord are true and | righteous | altogether.
9. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than | much fine | gold :
   Sweeter also than honey | and the | honey- | comb.
10. Moreover by them is thy | servant | warned :
    And in keeping of them | there is | great re- | ward.

11. Who can under- | stand his | errors ?
    Cleanse thou | me from | secret | faults.
12. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins ; let them not have do- | minion | over me :
    Then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent | from the | great trans- | gression.
13. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in | thy— | sight,
    O Lord, my | strength and | my Re- | deemer.

[Ps. XIX.]

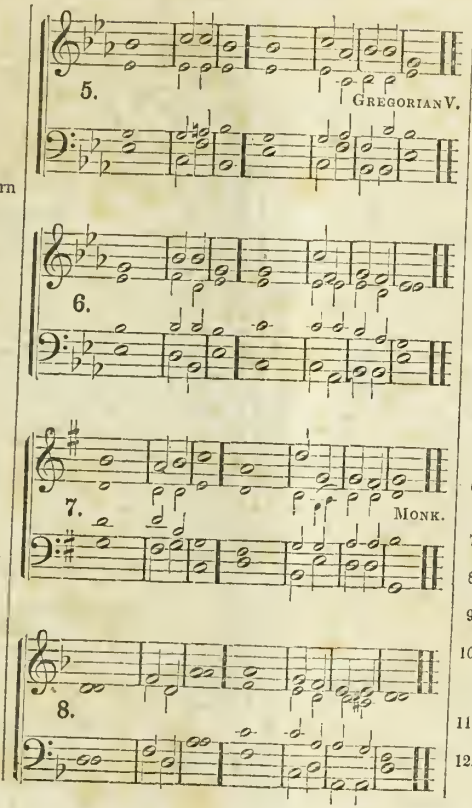
SELECTION 4.

1. God be merciful unto | us, and | bless us :
   And cause his | face to | shine up- | on us.
2. That thy way may be | known up-'-on | earth,
   Thy saving | health a- | mong all | nations.
3. Let the people praise | thee, O | God :
   Let all the | people | pra-ise | thee.
4. O let the nations be glad, and | sing for | joy :
   For thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the | na-'-tions up- | on the | earth.
5. Let the people praise | thee, O | God ;
   Let | all the | people | praise thee.
6. Then shall the earth | yield her | increase,
   And God, even | our own | God shall | bless us.
7. God | sha-ll | bless us,
   And all the ends of the | earth shall | fe-ar | him.

[Ps. LXVII.]

SELECTION 5.

1. God is our | refuge · and | strength,
   A very | present | help in | trouble.
2. Therefore we will not fear, though the | earth · be re- | mov-ed.
   And though the mountains be carried into the | midst of | the— | sea.
3. Though the waters thereof | roar, · and be | troubled,
   Though the mountains | shake · with the | swelling there- | of.
4. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the | city · of | God ;
   The holy place of the tabernacles | of the | Mo-st | High.
5. God is in the midst of her, she shall | not be | mov-ed,
   God shall help her, and | that right | ea-r- | ly.
6. The heathen rag-ed, the | kingdoms ' were | mov-ed,
   He uttered his | voice, the | ea-rth | melted.
7. The Lord of | Hosts is | with us ;
   The God of | Jacob | is our | refuge.
8. Come, behold the | works · of the | Lord,
   What desolations | he hath | made · in the | earth.



9. He maketh wars to cease unto the | end · of the | earth ;
   He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder, he burneth the | chariot | in the | fire.
10. Be still, and know that | I am | God ;
    I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be ex- | alted | in the | earth.
11. The Lord of | hosts is | with us ;
    The God of | Jacob | is our | refuge.

[Ps. XLVI.]

SELECTION 6.

1. Lord, thou hast been our | dwelling | place,
   In | a-ll | gene- | rations.
2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or even the earth | and the | world ;
   Even from everlasting to ever- | lasting, | Thou art | God.
3. Thou turnest man | to de- | struction ;
   And sayest, Return ye, | children | o-f | men.
4. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday, when | it is | past,
   And as a | wa-tch | in the | night.
5. Thou carriest them away as | with a | flood :
   They | a-re | as a | sleep.
6. In the morning they are like grass which | groweth | up ;
   In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up ; in the evening it is cut | down, and | wither- | eth.
7. For we are consum-ed | by thine | anger ;
   And by thy | wra-th | are we | troubled.
8. Thou hast set our iniquities be- | fo-re | thee ;
   Our secret sins in the | light of | thy— | countenance.
9. For all our days are passed away | in thy | wrath :
   We spend our years as a | ta-le | that is | told.
10. The days of our years are three-score years and ten, and if by reason of strength they be | four-score | years,
    Yet is their strength labor and sorrow ; for it is soon cut off, | and we | fly a- | way.
11. Who knoweth the power | of thine | anger :
    Even according to thy fear, | so is | thy— | wrath.
12. So teach us to | number · our | days :
    That we may apply our | hea-rts | unto | wisdom.
